Making your choices

Full Name: _____

Pathways of entry:

Pathway 1

Students will study four AS courses. They will take these examinations in the summer of Year 12 and then discontinue one course. They will then take the full A Level examinations in the summer of Year 13. A minimum of six 4-9 GCSE grades including English and Mathematics (at grade 5 or above) and meeting the subject-specific entry requirements detailed on each page of the prospectus is needed for entry to this pathway.

Pathway 2

Students will study a mixture of four AS and BTEC Level 3 vocational courses. They will take these examinations in the summer of Year 12 and then discontinue one course. They will then take the full A Level examinations in the summer of Year 13. A minimum of five 4-9 GCSE grades including English and Mathematics (at grade 5 or above) and meeting the subject-specific entry requirements detailed on each page of the prospectus is needed for entry to this pathway.

Pathway 3

Students will study three BTEC Level 3 vocational courses. Students will take these examinations in the summer of Year 12 and then discontinue one course. They will then take the full A Level examinations in the summer of Year 13. A minimum of five 4-9 GCSE grades including English and Mathematics (at grade 4 or above) and meeting the subject-specific entry requirements detailed on each page of the prospectus is needed for entry to this pathway.

Christian Life: All A level students follow a Religious Education Level 3 ASDAN qualification (which is worth up to 40 UCAS points) which has a timetabled one-hour lesson each week in Years 12 and 13.

The majority of students will take four subjects. Please place numbers in the table below that correspond to your preference of course where '1' is your top preference. PLEASE MAKE FIVE CHOICES in the table below. We will endeavour to timetable your first four choices, however, the fifth choice is a reserve if this is not possible.

*Please note that up to two BTEC/OCR National qualifications at Level 2 Merit can be used to gain entry to the sixth form, each BTEC will count as one of the five GCSE grades.
